"Carnatic 2.0 is a cutting-edge band that brings together the best of Indian classical music and modern electronic sounds. Led by the innovative Mahesh Raghvan, known for his groundbreaking work as a music producer and iPad performer, the band also features the dynamic violin playing of Shravan Sridhar, the soulful vocals of Sharanya Srinivas, and the rhythmic mastery of mridangam player Akshay Ananthapadmanabhan.

Together, the members of Carnatic 2.0 blend their classical training with a love of innovation and experimentation, creating a unique sound that captures the spirit of the present while paying homage to the rich traditions of Carnatic music. From popular tunes to new age versions of classic compositions, the band's performances are always fresh, exciting, and unforgettable. Experience the future of Indian music with Carnatic 2.0'

The repertoire covers a fascinating mix of Western pop presented in a classical fashion and popular Carnatic compositions fused with elements of EDM, Drum & Bass and Electronica which portrays a spectacular Audio Visual experience which has always attracted a wide audience demographic across ages!
